

Abstract: Biset functors were introduced by Serge Bouc as a common framework for the basic operations of finite group representations that are determined by permutation bimodules. In this talk, we introduce and discuss basics of fibered biset functors which provides a similar tool for operations determined by monomial bimodules. This is a joint work with Robert Boltje.