

We give a necessary and sufficient criterion to determine whether the Leavitt path algebra of a directed graph has a finite dimensional quotient. We also provide an algorithm to determine this in the case of a Leavitt path algebra of a finite digraph.